A FLAG PRESENTATION.

The Star Spangled Banner in Hawk's Park, Fla.

Comrade James H. Green, of Boston, Mass., who was visiting in Florida in the early Spring, as is his custom, was looking out for patriotic work and found it. Comrade and Mrs. Green were at Hawk's Park, Fla., an attractive little city, and their home was in the Bay View House. This hotel had a flagstaff and no flag. Indeed, it is said that there is not a single American Flag in all that part of Florida. Comrade Green didn't feel right to be in a town where he couldn't see the flag floating, so he decided to present a flag to Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Mendell, the proprietors of Bay View House. The flag is 6x10 feet, and was presented by Comrade

ILLUSTRATED BOOK No. 1.

FEW BOOKS in the literary history of the country had such instantaneous success and wide popularity as the "Si Klegg" series. From the very first the story attracted a host of readers, and these increased in geometrical ratio as the ublication progressed.

it is the story plainly, simdevelopment of two green country boys into veteran soldiers of the highest type. The story is told with affectionate fidelity by one who marched, camped and fought with them, and there is a universal agreement that it is far the best story of the experience of the enlisted men in the Union Army that has ever been written. Every detail and incident is so truthful, so like his own experience that the veteran in-stantly recognizes it with 7 a burst of laughter or the tears welling into his eyes. The abounding humor of the book is one of its most fast cinating features. Whereveal it is possible to extract fund out of any situation or hapia pening it is done in the rela old army way.
